

I request that no changes be made that would conflict with the Indiana Do Not Call List law. The nuisance calls have almost been eliminated completely since this law was enacted. I wish that the same type of law would be made concerning unwanted email solitations and porn.